

Pfizer Questionnaire Privacy Statement

This privacy statement relates to a questionnaire (the “Questionnaire”) that is to be completed by or on behalf of a company, entity or individual (the “Applicant”) who or that is proposing to enter into an engagement with Pfizer and/or receive funding or other support from Pfizer. If you have questions, please use the contact information provided in the “Contact us” section below.

Collection and use of information

Please note that in the Questionnaire we request personal information. The information that we request and you provide in response to the Questionnaire may include information relating to identifiable individuals, such as names, contact information, banking information, business/organization detail, criminal investigations, and associations with Government Officials. Personal information will be processed by Pfizer in order to comply with legal requirements, including to prohibit corrupt payments to Government Officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business.

You may be obligated under relevant laws to provide notice to the individuals whose personal information you provide and to obtain their consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of their personal information. By submitting personal information via this Questionnaire, you represent that you have provided any applicable notices and obtained any required consents.

Pfizer may also collect information from sources other than the specific Questionnaire you submit. This information may be obtained from Pfizer's existing records and/or from third party sources, such as databases utilizing publicly accessible information and occasionally private entities that collect information on our behalf.

The information collected through or associated with the Questionnaire (the “Information”) will be analyzed to evaluate risks related to anti-corruption laws and may be used to perform background checks. Completion of the Questionnaire is voluntary. However, if the Applicant fails to complete the Questionnaire, or is unable to provide all of the required information, Pfizer may be precluded from doing business with the Applicant or from providing the relevant funding or support.

Information disclosure and cross-border transfers

The entity responsible for the processing of personal information for purposes of the Questionnaire is the Pfizer entity that is proposing to enter into an engagement or provide funding or other support to the Applicant. That entity will provide the Information to Pfizer, Inc., a US corporation, which will hold the Information in the United States for its own compliance purposes. Some information from this Questionnaire will be made available to all Pfizer group entities worldwide so that they are aware that the Questionnaire has been completed should they propose to enter into an engagement with the Applicant in the future. A list of Pfizer entities and their respective locations is available at <https://selfservehosteu.pfizer.com/legal-entities>. In some circumstances Pfizer affiliates will be granted access to the full Information collected. In some cases, a third party supplier receives access to Information so that it can process it on behalf of another member of the Pfizer group, as a service provider, under strict conditions of confidentiality and security. If a potential compliance concern is identified, the Information will be further considered by Pfizer and/or may be disclosed to Pfizer's external legal counsel and/or may be disclosed to federal, state, national or local regulatory authorities in the US or other countries.

As mentioned above, personal information may be transferred to the United States or other countries that may have varied privacy laws. With respect to the European Economic Area (EEA), we have put in place adequate measures, such as standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission, to protect personal information. Individuals may obtain a copy of these measures at https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/model-contracts-transfer-personal-data-third-countries_en.

Individual rights

If any individual whose personal information is included in the Questionnaire responses would like to request to review, correct, update, suppress, restrict or delete personal information or request to port personal information (to the extent this right to data portability is provided by applicable law), the individual should contact Procurement-GDPR-Team@pfizer.com. We may need to verify the individual's identity before implementing the request. We will try to comply with the request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Additional information for the EEA: (i) you may lodge a complaint with a data protection authority for the relevant country or region, or in the country where an alleged infringement of applicable data protection law occurs (see at http://ec.europa.eu/newsroom/article29/item-detail.cfm?item_id=612080); and/or (ii) contact the Pfizer Data Protection Officer, whose contact details are available at dpo.pfizer.com.

Retention of information

Information will be retained for the period permitted or required by applicable law. The following criteria are used to determine our retention periods: (i) the period of time in which we maintain a relationship with the Applicant; (ii) legal obligations to which we are subject; and (iii) as advisable in light of our legal position (such as with respect to applicable statutes of limitations, litigation, or regulatory investigations).

Contact us

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Statement or how Pfizer collects and uses personal information, or if you would like to obtain information about the adequate measures we have put in place for transfers, please contact us at DataProtectionUK@Pfizer.com, or write to the following address: Pfizer Limited, IPC 1-1, Walton Oaks, Dorking Road, Tadworth, Surrey KT20 7NS.

Because email communications are not always secure, please do not include sensitive information in your emails to us.