

Pfizer Statement Regarding Reports of Alleged Misuse of Viagra in Libya

"Pfizer is appalled by the allegations of abuse in Libya. We condemn any misuse of our medicines. Pfizer stopped shipping all products to Libya in February, when sanctions were implemented by the international community. Our thoughts remain with the people of Libya, and for a peaceful resolution to this conflict."